How near we came to accomplishing our object, fature reports will show.

But for the fault and unexpected and unavoidable delay in building the bridges which give the enemy 21 hours more to concentrate the river.

The capture of Trenton is confirmed by arrivals from there, at Columbus last night.

A gentleman informs me that was there on case the battle would have been, in my opinion far, more decisive than if we had crossed at which he placed his men, and located three eld pieces with which he was provided. The rebels are reported to be advancing on Columbus, and tearing up the railroad track as they advance. They are said to be 7,000 strong with seven pieces of artillery. Firing was heard at Columbus when the best the mae, to whom I am so much indebted for their support and hearty co-operation. I will add here that the movement was made earlier than you expected, and after the President Secretary, and yourself requested me not to be in haste, for the reason that we were supplied much sooner by the different Staff Departments than was anticipated. Our killed amounts to 1,159, our wounded to about 9,000, and our prisoners to about

Mr. SAULSISUEY replied, and said Delaware had always been true and loyal to the United States, and the only disloyalty the could be shown was treating with couriery a envoy from a sovereign State. He read the resolution nassed by the Legislature, utterff disapproving of the objects of the gentleman mission. He contended at some lesight that Delaware was auritous for peace, and he be fleved that if her connecled at some lesight that Delaware was auritous for peace, and he be fleved that if her connecled at some lesight that was not always to the source of the oddersed there would have been to-day peace in the land instead of war.

Mr. LANE said his argument was simply to show that the Prestitent had reason to suspect there were traitors in Delaware.

Mr. EAYARD of Del. said that at the proper time he would reply to the wanton assault of the Senator from Indiana, on the legislature of Delaware. The stated was unterly groundless and wanton.

On notion of Mr. TEELD, the bill was postponed.

Our correspondent, hears intimations in camp that Gen. Rosecram intends to assign Col. Sherman to a brigade. This letter closes thus: "Quite a large number of our boys have recently been made very happy by fiar receipt, through the hands of agents of the Board of Trade, of packages and grits from home; and lately, as still at present, the Camp is cheered by the presence of the sives of Col. Sherman, Lieux Col. Chadbourne and other officers. These, while they gladden the hearts of their hisbonds, quicken also the holier sympathy in us. And so, dear Tatsuys, we pray that the great North may now, at once, and without further parley, fling all its manhood, and all fits majesty, and all its lofty strength upon the throat of this infernal rebellion, so that its accurace eyes may leap out on is checks, and its fine blacken in our choking gripe—to the end that the nation may be delivered from its next the makesty of law charges being preferred, or any show of trial, expelled Thomas J. The steamer City Belle arrived this evening, and brought Helena and Memphis passengers and papers of the 19th. The saws is interesting. The gracillas still hang about the outsitive of Menghis, and on Thursday last they captured a visin of aluesteen wagons a few miles from 10,000 Federal troops. But the most successful movement of the gracillas was that occurring at Commerce, forty miles above Helena, about half way from Helena and Memphis. Some time since a banker in Memphis named Mix made a contract with a man residing near Commerce for some cotton.

M. Y. Johnson, the other "blessed Demo-M. Y. Johnson, the other "blessed Demo-orsite martyr," coveled the position of such traitor and expressed a desire to indoctrinate everybody else with the principle. He gave a long description of his arrest and imprison-ment, raving incessantly about Bastiles, "the infamy and periody of the men in power, "that they were the meanest devils upon earth," "a spacies of tyramylnot to be tolerated," a despo-tism worse than that of Austria, etc., etc. After proposing to impeach Gov. Yates, the "martyr," somehow possessed of the idea that the Transvan had abused him, proceeded to demotish it, which he may to his own satisfaction and that of his auditors. He further said: "There is not a man from Abe Lincoln through the entire Cabinet." But has richated every law and is a traitor. Let them make the most of it if they want to. I suppose my friends of the TRIBURE are reporting this. If so let it be telegraphed to Washington." After discouraging the war, the martyr closed by saying that he should use his best endeavors to induce the Illinois holders home unless the war was conducted on Democratic principles.

The whole tissue of each of the speeches consisted in attacking the entire Administration, threatening them with overthrow and urging resistance to them; in other words, Turnson, and the freason was listened to by the Invincible Clob, in their upper chamber, and heartly cheered.

SUPERIOR COURT-Before Hon. Grant Good rick.—Reanor vs. Whippie. In this case the defeudant pleaded on award, and the plaintiff replied that it was obtained by the traud of the defendant. The defendant defraud of the defendant. The defendant de-murred, alleging that in this State fraud could not be pleaded generally, but that the facts constituting the fraud must be specifi-eally set forth. The plantiff contended that by the course of the common law, it was not only allowable but advisable to plead fraud in general terms, and though admitting that a different rule for some cases had been estab-lished in this State, still instated that the new rule arose only upon-or statete of negotiable instruments, and was strictly confined to cases arising admertif. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL. THE MONEY MARKET.

Mornay Evzytro, Dec. 23, 1888.

The pressure for funds upon bankers to-day from all sources termendous, and hence several of the larger discount houses find themselves short of currency. As a coisequence, some houses have been both buying and selling at par. Others buy at par and sell at 1-10gN; premium. The market is decidedly weak. Should the exarcity of currency continus, sellors will be obliged to accept which discount, and the meal selling rate will be
